ABOUT WESTVIEW!

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

In the past eight years, Westview has continued to grow until it has become the largest school in the Borough. During this period of time, many changes have taken place. The student body, the staff, the building and the curriculum have all changed but the one thing which has not changed is our purpose at Westview, which is to impart education. Education is a process, a never-ending process. To achieve the benefits of education requires a genuine effort and self-discipline. It continues to be the best solution to the social, financial and environmental problems of our society.

To the graduates, I express my sincere congratulations and wish you the best of luck in your post-secondary school plans.

To the yearbook Committee, your endeavors have recorded another year at Westview. Your contribution will be recognized every time this book is opened. My personal thanks and appreciation for a job well done.

Mr. Bell

VICE PRINCIPALS

Mr. Ross

Mr. Futa

Mr. Shiner

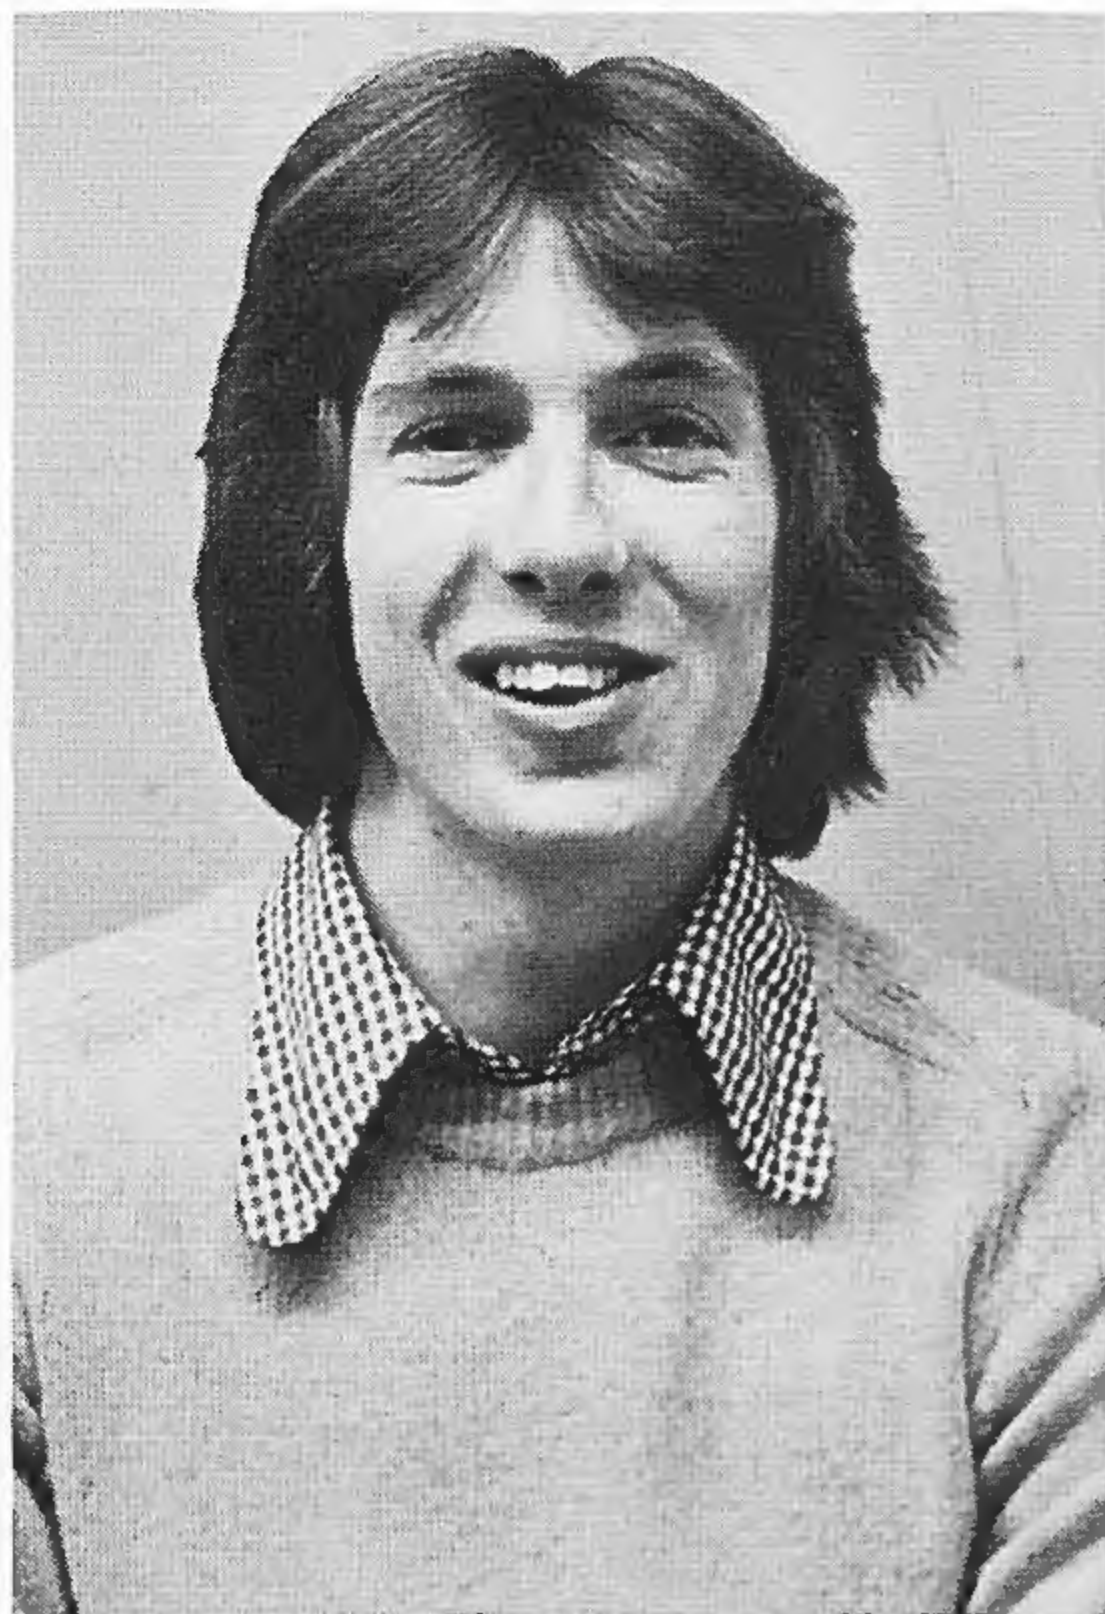

It is a pleasure for me to congratulate both the graduating class and all the students who contributed to this yearbook. Westview has special meaning for me because it is in the Ward in which I represent and I have enjoyed greatly not only discussing your academic program, but also attending many musical, athletic and cultural events which have taken place at Westview during the last few years. It is tempting at times like these to wax philosophical and talk about "passing the torch" to the younger generation but you are too sophisticated for this and I am sure prefer the truth.

Recently the pace of life and the magnitude of our problems have accelerated well beyond the experience of my generation and those which preceeded it. We as Canadians can no longer speak of our magnificent future without a critical awareness of the actual world in which we live and a consideration of the needs and hopes of others. These problems and changes have produced a world in which wise and compassionate leadership was never more necessary. I wish you all a happy and rewarding future and in the difficult but promising years which lie ahead I hope you will all be able to look back and reflect that we in your school system have served both you and the Future well in preparing you for your time to lead.

Congratulations and Good Luck in all your endeavours.

Editors' Message

Putting together a yearbook is never easy, especially when the school is as large as ours and is filled with many faces and activities you want to include.

The yearbook staff was made up completely of amateurs, who when handed some complicated material, proceeded with a stunned expression on their faces and hoped for the best.

However, everyone worked long and hard doing very boring jobs, even on those days where it seemed like everyone and everything was going against us. But, of course, there is always the fun times to look back on and laugh at.

We, probably more than anyone, realize this book is not the image of absolute perfection, but for our first try, we think it's fantastic! So here it is, for you, the students and staff of Westview Centennial 1975.

The following people have offered their assistance during the production of our yearbook, and their help is hereby gratefully acknowledged. Mike Barber, John Terminisi, Jeff Crang, Chris Beaune, Mark D'Sylva, Jean Eliopoulos, Mark Lappano, Debby Leach, Linda Felix, Ivana Di Giovanni, John VyBaynham, Courtney Wint, Rasmo Cicci, Tom Clarke, Violet Horvath.

"THE GROUP":
Bill Cleary, Carol Pickles, Vincenza Marchese, Carol Melia, Norma Boles, Sabina Riemer.

Captivated workers

It is a difficult task to find the words which adequately describe the experiences encountered by this "Class of 74". But, it is even more difficult to try to recapitulate and convey the feelings or emotions which accompanied those experiences.

For all of us, parents, teachers and students alike, the past four years have been a period of growth in many directions. The most obvious being physical growth; the most delicate, emotional growth and the one for which most schools are built, intellectual growth. The meaning of growth inferred in all these perspectives encompasses not only development and expansion, but also discovery, awareness and realization.

By engaging ourselves in different fields of endeavor, from athletics to academics, to music and many others, we were able to exercise a will to become more aware of what was around us and perhaps even more significant, of what was within us.

This type of discovery and self-awareness took place in each of our days here at Westview. In the classroom, we faced situations which challenged us to contemplate and reason on an intellectual basis as well as to understand and relate on a social basis. It was in this type of educational environment that we could expand our sphere of knowledge by gaining insight into the "art of human communication" and developing this essential facet of life.

For this part of our education, the Graduates of '74 express their indebtedness and sincere gratitude to a staff who catalyzed for us and often shared with us those experiences so essential and pertinent to our growth.

In addition, as grade nine and ten students we came to Westview with many preconceptions of high school life. We expected to find an institutional type life full of "hardnosed towering authoritarians". Instead, we were greeted by a principal who was perhaps not immensely "towering" in size but, markedly "towering" in his kindness and understanding.

Through athletics, we were offered the opportunity to strive for and realize that essential balanced growth of body and mind. For this opportunity the Graduates of '74 will earnestly remember those who held a sincere belief in physical education and made it possible for students to explore this realm of human existence.

But yet, even though all these features were genuinely part of our education, there were still those experiences which were not as exceedingly enriching or fulfilling.

Of this class' high school experience in the 70's, it was most disheartening to witness a conflict of values between education and government financing. Unfortunately, this developed in education becoming a "political football" which was tossed far beyond the reach of the students and in fact, out of the field of true intellectual development.

Although we leave high school acknowledging and grateful for what we gained through our education, we also leave with an awareness of elements that could have rendered our experience even more worthwhile. Often, we found priorities within the credit system misleading and cast in the wrong directions. The consequence was in some instances, a lessening of the capacity for understanding the world around us and a lack of preparation for the future.

For this reason the Graduating Class of 1974 must place its faith in the future. The future, because it holds the possibility of eliminating the obstacles which impede the maximization of the positive and enriching sides of education. We must strive to minimize the negative and ineffectual sides of education.

The task now is to continue the growth process already initiated here at Westview. To utilize the resources and insight gained here at Westview, and to apply ourselves in our new environment, be it university, college or the working world.

We must get on with the job of formulating our individual and collective contributions to humanity. The contribution of the "Class of '74", is to realize self-awareness, intellectual integrity and the ability to relate to other people.

L...

FAMILY!

Painted lady.
 Painted face.
 To thine self be true.
 You try to change who you are
 But the inside still shows through.

Hollow heart.
 Shallow soul.
 The champagne is ginger ale.
 What happens when the darkness lifts?
 They'll see through your veil.

SUSAN JOHNSON 5B01

KNOWLEDGE

There lies danger
 In knowledge
 And the arrogance
 Bred therein
 The bright light scorns
 Until the roof
 Falls in . . .

DEBBIE McCOURT 4S14

A frozen wind so soft and cold,
 Whistles 'round you now, my love
 And you are me, and I am ice,
 And still I wonder why,
 The frozen dogs do sleep, my love,
 Beside the frozen fire.

JOHN DOWNEY 4L09

LIFE

faithless, faceless people strive to make the world their own.
 Churchless steeples proudly stand upon the sodden ground.
 Worshipping the things in life that make you what you are.
 Never going anywhere
 but reaching from afar.
 Walk the city streets
 and see, inside their cool facade.
 Do the things you want to do and then you've got it made.
 Where are the pretty flowers?
 Was it only yesterday,
 That we reached the end of time?
 Is this a new today?
 Will it all be different in the world we made anew?
 Will we bury baby boys
 in the ground that's been renewed?
 See the stars shine brightly?
 Are they half as well as we?
 Sickness in unfeeling worlds
 Is death to you and me.

 WRITE-ON

My foot kicks the peaceful mound of snow.
 The peace is broken in the snow.
 As it is with me;
 I've been in one place too long.
 My eyes scan the placid sky.
 A 747 bird bisects it.
 And the peace is broken,
 As it is with me.
 I am a citizen of the world
 And I wish to see my home,
 To see my neighbour's face,
 To ease the pain within.
 To write kind words does not satisfy,
 My wander-wonder spirit takes me on
 To other lands
 Other seas.
 The snow falls again now.
 The peace is restored
 But not to me . . .
 I've been in one place too long.

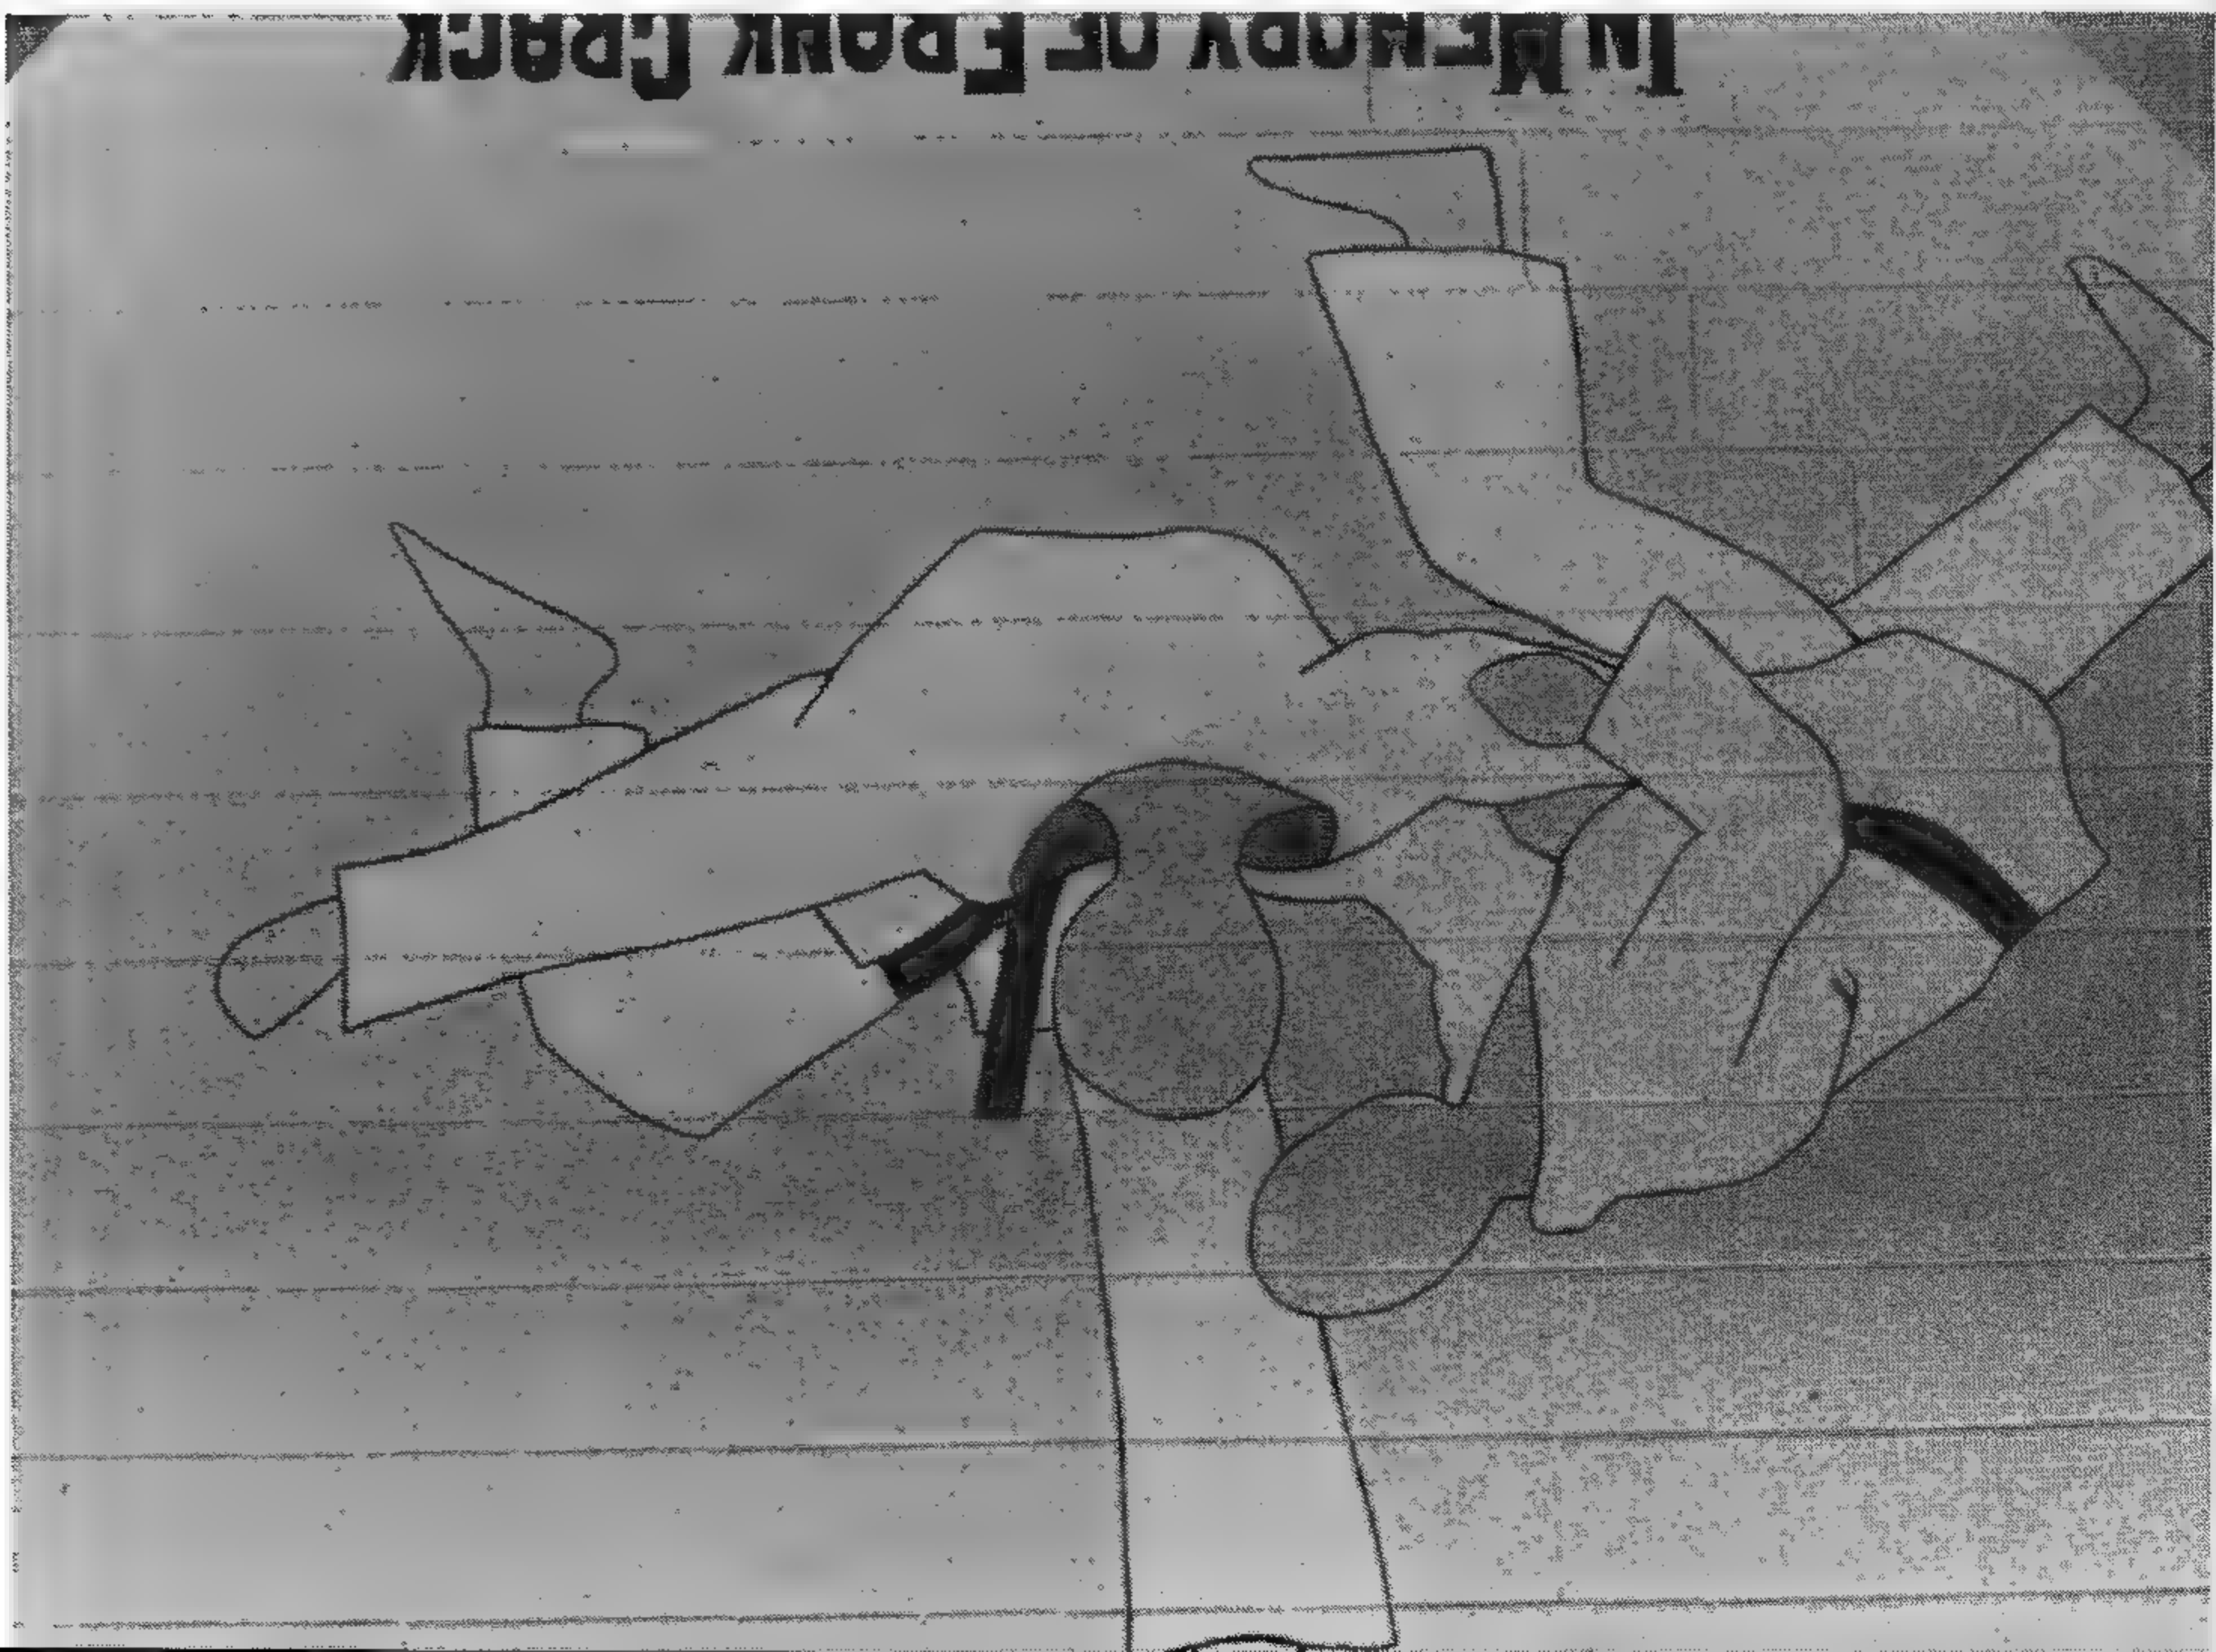

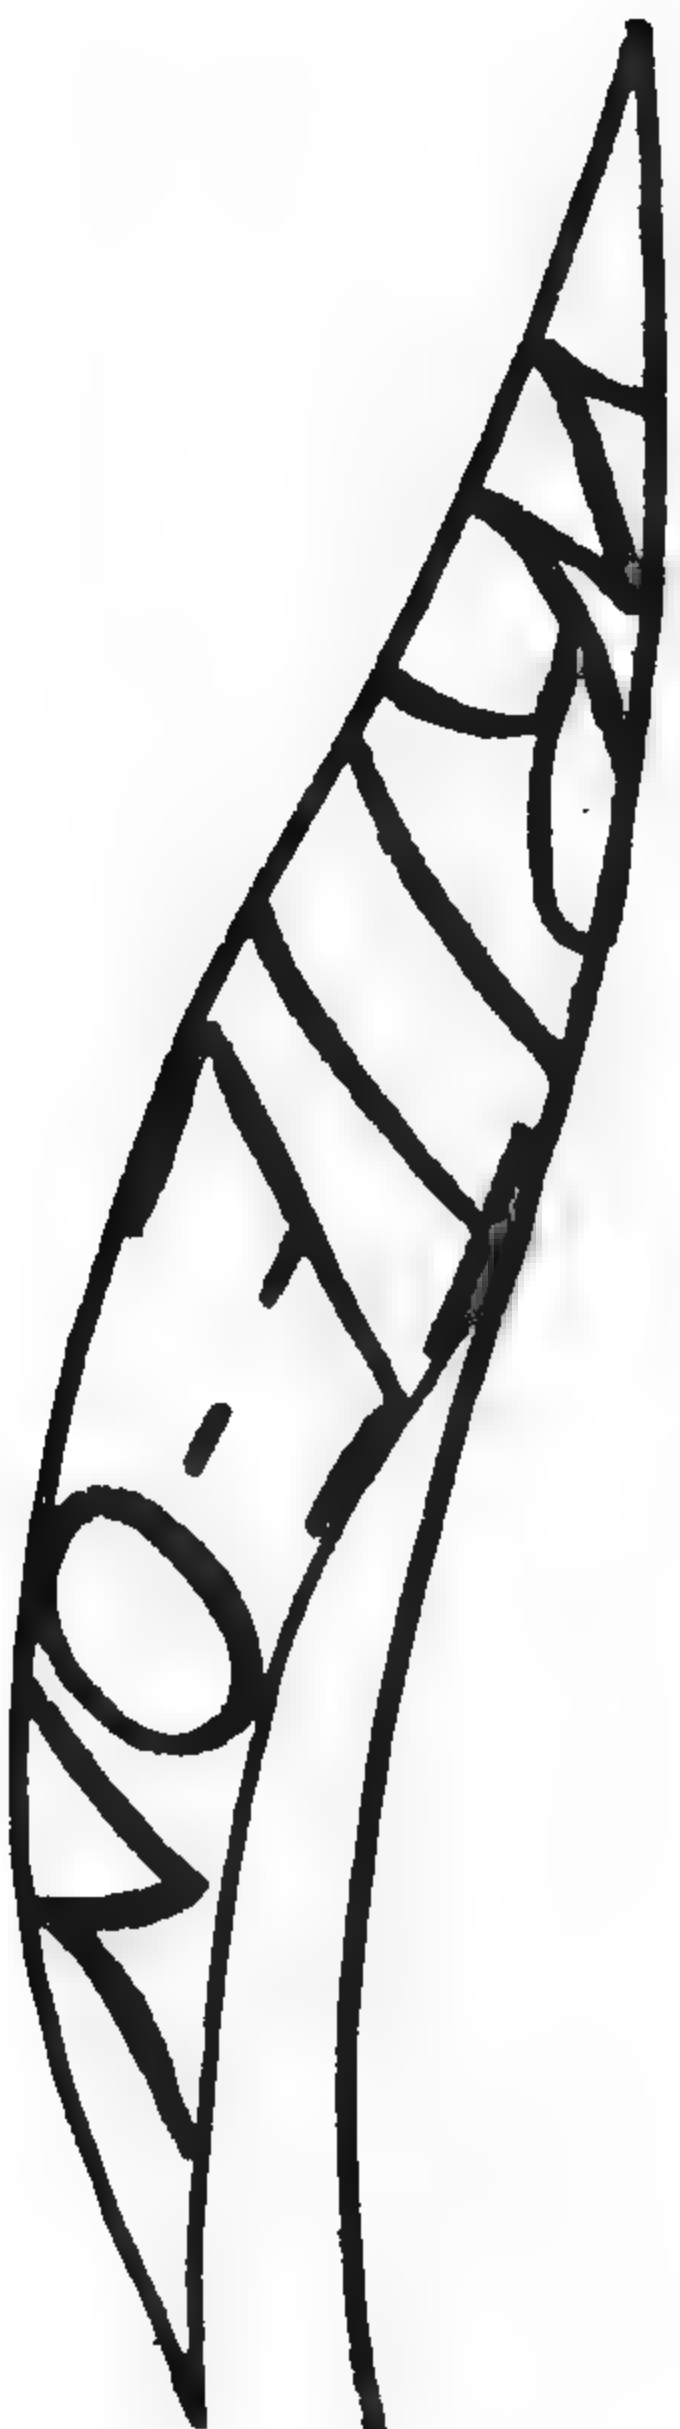

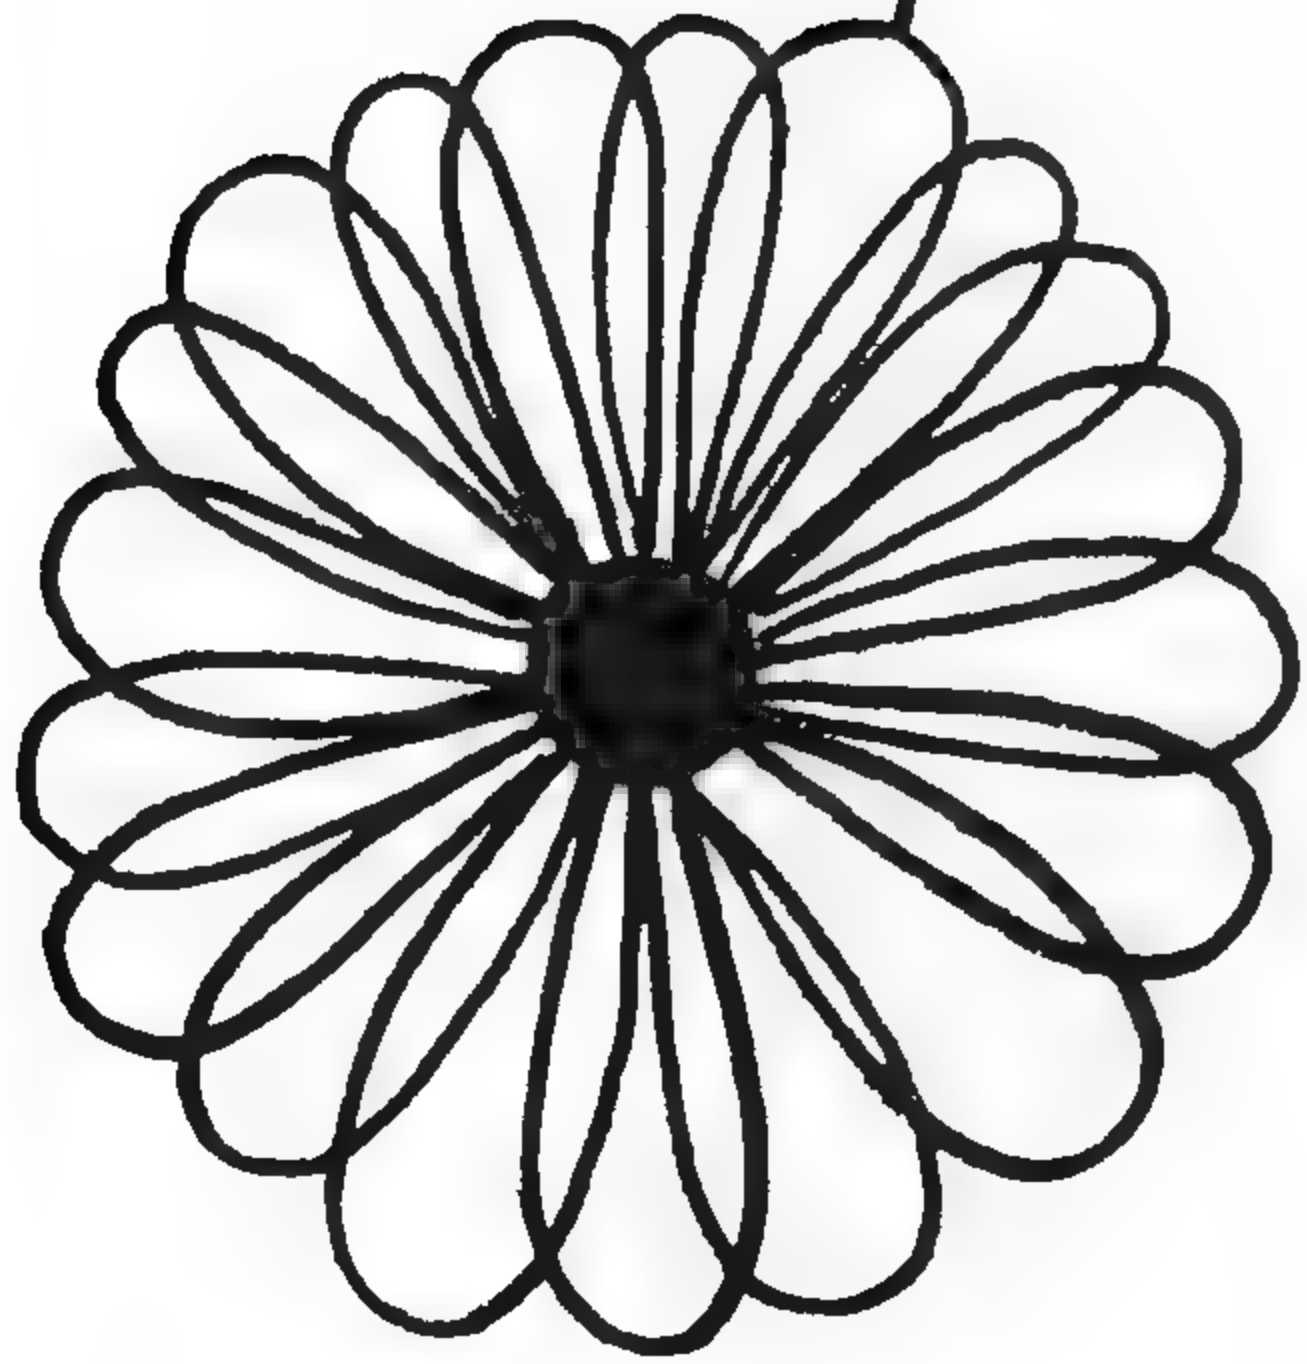

CIDALIA PAIVA, 5C01

SEXISM

In our "liberated" society, how many cases of blatant sexism does one encounter?

I got a carnation
 he got a cigar.
 I only got the carnation
 so that the miserable creature that handed it to me
 could paw all over my upper structure.
 I got a pamphlet full of grossly over-priced diamond rings.
 He got a year's subscription to
 The Financial Post.
 With it
 he could figure out ways to pay for the grossly over-priced diamond ring
 that I have so expertly selected
 I got a twelve-dollar beauty kit offer to "keep my man"
 he got a glittering pamphlet on V.D.,
 I can stay home and fix my face
 while he runs around getting V.D.
 but if he gets V.D. and then gives it to me
 I won't know because
 I didn't get a pamphlet

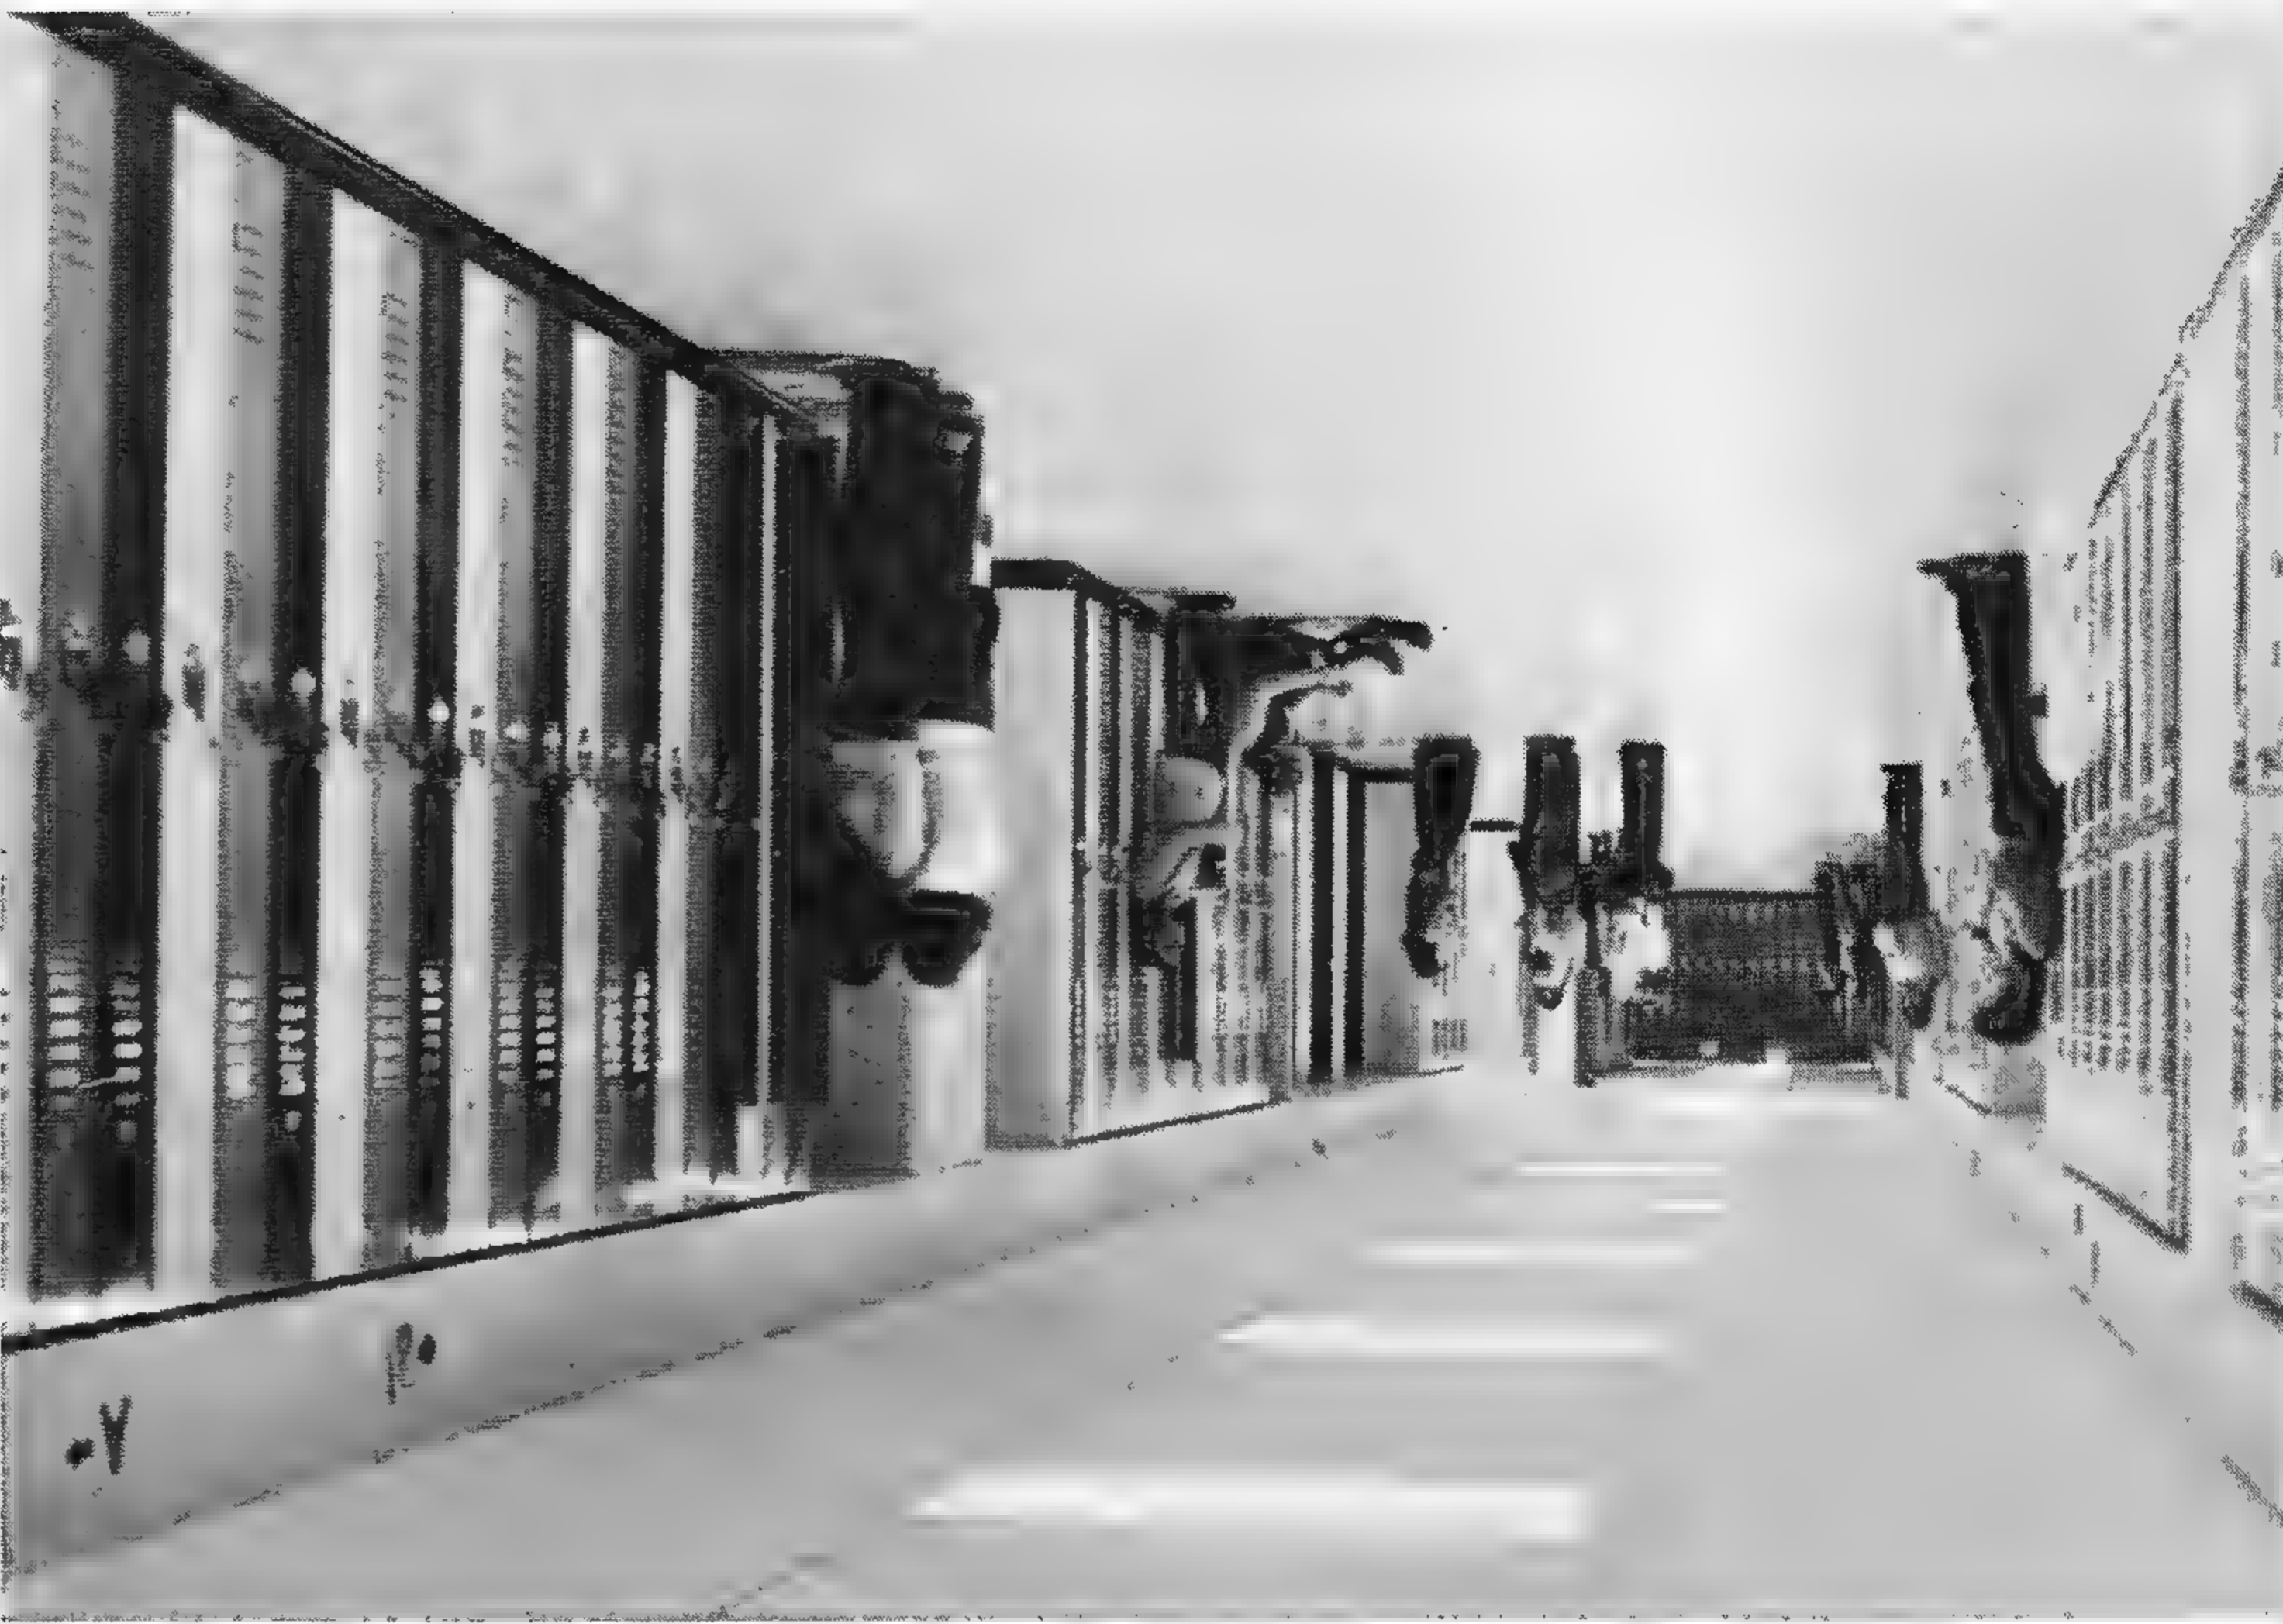

QUIFFIE LeTOUR (ANONYMOUS)

In the beginning of the 1974-75 school year Write-On (the school's literary newspaper) decided to award one $50. cash prize and two $25. cash prizes to their top participants.

At this time, we, the yearbook staff, would like to congratulate the three winners: Susan J. Johnson, winner of the $50. award; and Kathy Tschakovsky and Carl Brown, each receiving a $25. award.

Our thanks go to Brian Whitehead, Editor; Cynthia Wright, Assistant Editor; and also to Miss Mayerson, Staff Advisor; who gave us the tip in mid March.

We've got to stop meeting like this.

On the run with a burger on a bun.

What I don't do
for you.

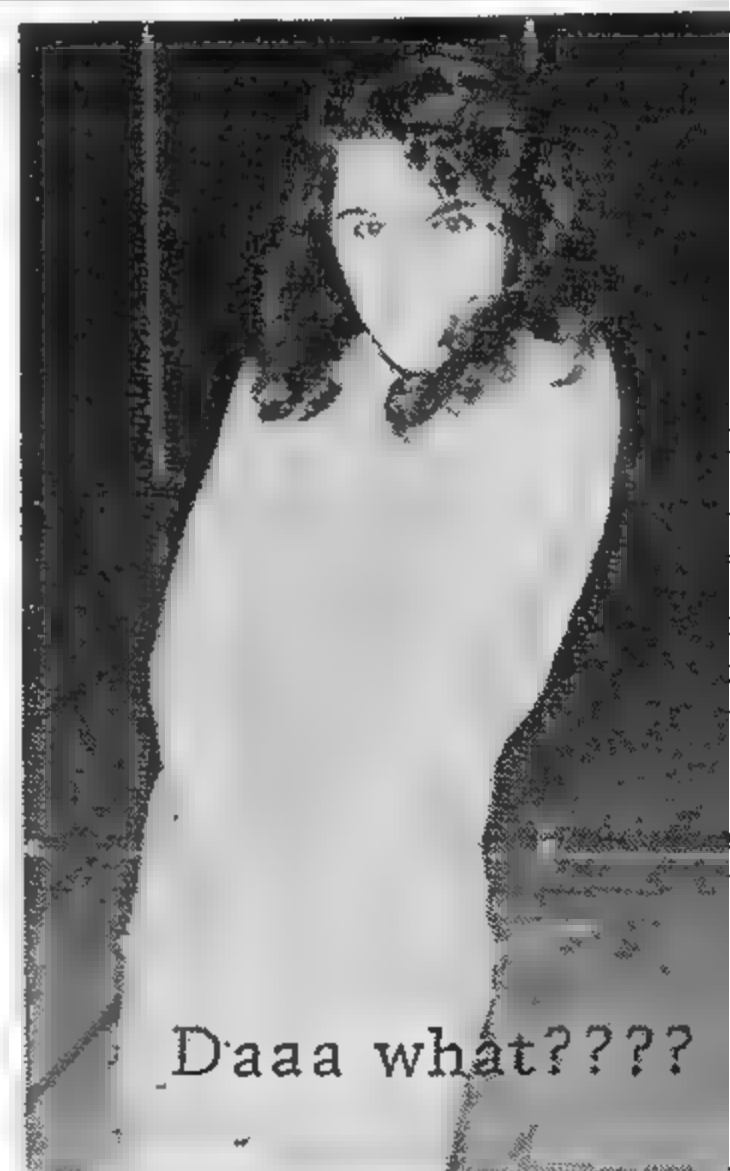

Who's the jerk with the camera?

puts a smile
on your face and a pain in your gut

...and tomorrow we'll pretend we're elephants.

Daaa what????

I've been hooking . . . a rug!

Let's not get carried away.

I'll get you Red Baron!!

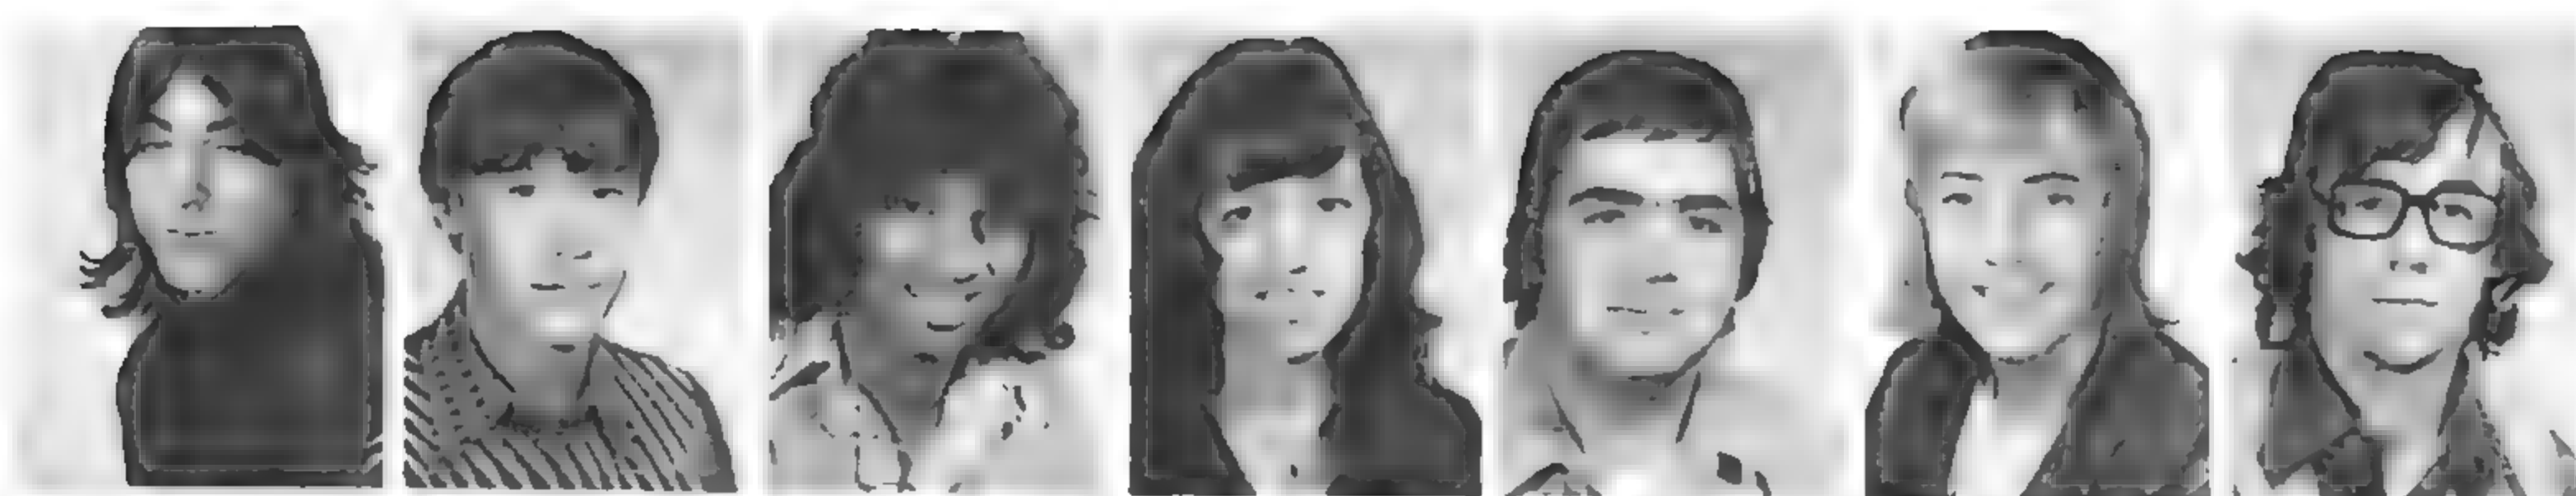

leave me with alone

NORTH YORK VOLLEYBALL CHAMPIONS 1974-5!

In its first attempt at Junior Volleyball, Wetsview's team rolled up an impressive 6-1 record during the season, then put the icing on the cake by beating Newtonbrook in the final three games to one.

The "two-a-day" practices paid off because in a very short time this team progressed from the original motor-MORONS to a UNIT which functioned as a team.

As a team their wins were always impressive and totally convincing. The Junior Volleyball League looks a bit doubtful for next year, and if it doesn't come to fulfillment Westview can rest content that this year's championship is that rare "one of a Kind".

Although the Track and Field season at Westview didn't start until April, this fine group of enthusiastic hopefuls came out in late February for the team picture.

In addition to the coaches (Mr. Oschipik--far right, Mr. Unger--second from right, Mr. Wortzman--far left, and Mr. Brooks--second from left) and a good number of rookies, the photo also includes a few of our more successful veterans--milers, Brian Dewling (back row third from right), John Van Zetten (back row fourth from right), and Carol Brown (back row fifth from right), sprinters Dave Bell (back row fifth from right), George Molner (back row second from left, partially obscured), and Rodney Nicetich (centre row second from left) and triple jumper Ken Van Tassel (centre row fifth from right).

"SPORTS"

Ballet-grace movements.
Journeying to become a person
For neither life's nor death's sake,
But the challenge
To face yourself
When, in playing to win,
You lose.

Still moving with grace
Instead of playing the blues,
And becoming something
You'd rather not be,
Moving in a way you'd rather not see.

Losing.
Only yourself
Rather Clumsily.

"LUX ET SONUS FIANT"

Few organizations at Westview are as involved in as many areas of school life as "The Stage and Lighting Crew." The crew is a service group which supplies sound, lighting and general production assistance to all groups at Westview. Some examples of the work they do are: Provision of sound facilities for music groups, playing both at the school and outside the school; provision of sound and lighting for assemblies and similar facilities for school dances; supplying music during lunch periods in the cafeteria; maintaining the stage facilities at Westview; stage managing the Canadian Stage Band Festival. Each year several Grade 10 students are selected as "Gaffers", to train with the senior members of the Crew as apprentices. Due to this training system, a continuing group of trained personnel are available. An annual reunion is held each year, where members from past years return to reminisce and continue a tradition which began with the first stage crew, formed in 1967.

Don't look at me in that tone of voice!

President's Message

The 1974-75 school year at Westview, was a totally new and different experience. It provided the opportunity for conscientious students to actualize their individual capacities and establish a tradition of initiative and persistence which has come to identify the character of our school. It was this same unique, highly personalized attitude which has made this a year of co-operation, and participation as a unified team. The Westview spirit has finally emerged and it is a contagious one which gradually destroyed the apathetic atmosphere which we inherited. Especially since Westview has the largest student population in North York. We have learned to utilize our size and make it a valuable asset instead of a liability. This is what we feel is reflected in the pages of this book; the true meaning behind our experience.

On behalf of ourselves and the entire student council, including Mr. Diachun, our staff advisor, congratulations on finding, developing and utilizing our own feelings of personal worth and self esteem and for generating this feeling into the life of our school. This year you have learned the most fundamentally important principle of life, and together we have applied it. Please continue in this awareness throughout your lives. We feel confident that you will always be totally fulfilled and happy people.

Gratefully yours,
Cidalia Paiva
Percy Ashby

This is from the class of '74
We have a great number of students
But still we could use some more

We learn how to read
And also to write
In a different language
Which also includes "sight"

We learn funny strokes
That go every which way,
But once they're together
We know what they say.

This language is handy
And also real neat
'Cause in a school like this
It's the only way to cheat."

Got involved; got friends; got happy.
Never doing homework, but getting high marks.
For being happy, talkative and helping.
Being a liberated cheerleader, ready to help.
Being a non-eater in the school caf.
Love french course, love snow, went to Quebec.
"Westview Starlettes" cheerleader, got rich, learned new things.
With all my absences, if I pass, it will be a miracle.
I was on the honour roll.
On the swim team, cracked the odd joke.
Champion Brisque player.
Did well in school, finally got a job.
Always smiling, creating a happy atmosphere.
Making the honour roll by two marks.
Count your blessings; not your trouble.
For my improvement in schoolwork.
For my poems: Life can be long, if you want it to be, what you put in it you'll eventually see.
The only grade 12 in this grade 11 home form.
Daydreaming and therefore missing my questions.
Got 25/25 on a dictée.
Ski-bummmm.
Colour my world with Robert Lomm, peanut butter, and strawberry jam. I'm his biggest fan.
If I was to be remembered by how smart I was, I'd be forgotten in a second; so remember me as I am.
I was the only blonde student in the class.
For having an enthusiastic, co-operative, clever and fun home-room.

Mr. Pendlebury was giving a Grade 10 Science class a talk on flowering plants. "Now", he said, "can anyone tell me what makes the plant spring from the seed?" "God does it", answered Steve Bell, "but fertilizer helps". A questionnaire was sent home with a new student, requesting information regarding the home environment, number of brothers and sisters, father's occupation, etc. The next day the student returned with a scrap of paper on which the following was written: "We have eighteen children. My husband can also operate a tractor." When the Biology class was over, Dave Kendrick went up to Dr. Tobe to ask a question. Dr. Tobe: "What would you like?" Dave: "I'd like to know what we learned in class today. Dr. Tobe: "That's an odd question. Why do you want to know that?" Dave: "They always ask me that when I get home and today I wouldn't know how to answer."

Charlie C.

Who is Charlie C?

Why, Charlie Coleman, of course — the man who made Delicatessen eating in Toronto an institution, and then went on to bigger and better things.

Charlie C. is the beautiful result of years of building and growing. Now the famous Coleman's Delicatessen specialties are available in elegant, modern surroundings second to none.

Catering and banquet facilities for groups from 20-200 offer fine steaks and plate dinners, from the expanded new Charlie C. menu. All your delicatessen favourites are also available.

Enjoy cocktails and your favourite wines in the fully licensed Charlie C.

— a new, modern, exciting
Coleman's experience!
